

GEORGIANS for ALTERNATIVES to
the DEATH PENALTY

FIFTY YEARS LATER: A MODERATED DISCUSSION

GREGG v. GEORGIA

— JULY 2, 1976 – JULY 2, 2026 —

What Georgia Gave America:
The Modern Death Penalty

The Case Against State Execution:
Fifty Years of Evidence

WHAT THE STATE CAN'T TAKE BACK

Every other government
action can be revisited.
An execution cannot.

FIFTY YEARS OF EVIDENCE

77

EXECUTIONS
IN GEORGIA

7

EXONERATIONS
IN GEORGIA

4×

RACIAL DISPARITY
IN DEATH
SENTENCING

TUESDAY, JULY 7, 2026

12:00 PM ET

Virtual Event via Zoom

REGISTER ONLINE:

<https://bit.ly/3SlRwHr>

Registration required.

MODERATOR

Terrica
Redfield Ganzy, Esq.

Executive Director
Southern Center
for Human Rights

DISCUSSION PARTICIPANTS

Daniel LaChance, Ph.D.

Winship Distinguished Research Professor
in History,
Emory University

Jason
Fabrikant,
J.D.

Faculty Member,
Department of Justice,
Law & Criminology,
American University

CO-HOSTED BY

GEORGIA CATHOLIC CONFERENCE
ARCHDIOCESE OF ATLANTA • DIOCESE OF SAVANNAH